ABOUT ESTATE JEWELRY TERMS

ESTATE JEWELRY

By definition, estate jewelry is any item that has had one or more previous owners. Pieces may be two months old or two hundred years old. They may come from estate settlements, banks, auctions, antique dealers, or other private owners, to name just a few sources.

VINTAGE JEWELRY

Jewelry described as 'vintage' speaks of the era in which it was produced, and exhibits the best of the qualities associated with that era. For a piece of jewelry in our collection to be considered 'vintage' it must be at least 25 years old. (Because the term is somewhat subjective, some dealers set the standard at 20 years old). Today, jewelry made as recently as 1988 (gasp!) can be classified as Vintage as it falls within the 25 year old parameter

ANTIQUE JEWELRY

We consider as antique jewelry any item that we can identify by style or craftsmanship to be at least 100 years old. We also use the U.S. Customs Service ruling as a standard for determining duty-free status on any Imported piece (must be over 100 years old).

PERIOD JEWELRY

"Period jewelry" is a general and fluid term used to describe pieces that are usually hand crafted and old, but at a given time, not yet old enough to be considered antique. Today, items that might be described as 'period jewelry' included pieces from the Art Deco, Retro and Modern Vintage periods.

REPLICA JEWELRY

Replicas are Items that are hand crafted recreations of specific pieces, usually antique and sometimes recognizable or even famous. Replica materials and craftsmanship emulate the original, so making replicas is labor intensive and usually expensive. Replica settings are often created to hold estate – or even antique diamonds and gemstones.

MOTIF JEWELRY

Jewelry items described as 'motif' are newly manufactured recreations that are designed to feature the characteristics of a specific period or style. In today's market, motif collections featuring recreations of Art Deco and Art Nouveau jewelry looks are especially popular.
